4. Departmental Presentations - Parks and Recreation

The committee would like a general overview about the department, including staffing and other resources, programming, and any objectives or initiatives that they are pursuing. In addition, the following questions were posed:

- What provisions are being made to transition to the new facility?
- How will the transition effect their day-to-day activities?
- What are the year-to-year trends in enrollment in summer camps and programs?
- Does the department feel that outreach to minority and under-served communities works well at promoting programming? Are there resources that the department feels would make this work better?

5. Review topics for upcoming meetings

May 2: Fire / Rescue Dept. and Public Safety Communications Center

June 7 (Tuesday): Parking Enforcement or other topic

6. Items Referred to Committee
