3. Topics for final committee report – individual views

Commissioner Nnamdi Pole offered an update on Smith College. He said he had Smith send him a document where they outline the extent of dependence on the Northampton Police Department. He suggested having an open discussion now about whether somebody from Smith should come and speak.

Commissioner Nnamdi Pole shared his screen and reviewed the document.

Commissioner Nnamdi Pole said he asked the head of public safety, basically the chief of police on the campus to outline for us when they use deadly force.

Commissioner David Hoose said he has been around long enough to remember when Smith had a separate entity, and then they merged with some of the other colleges to form one police force is my understanding now that they've disbanded that and gone back to having their own force.

Commissioner Nnamdi Pole said there's a history where exactly as you laid it out, and it was only in the last couple of years, where they made the decision that they wanted to retain the control of their own public safety.

Commissioner Cynthia Suopis said she's always viewed this committee as informative reporting. She said the committee needs to make a list of things to ask the chief, for instance about property tax and traffic, because the committee's time is running out and it's got to wrap this up.

8. Adjourn

Commissioner David Hoose moved to adjourn the meeting at 6:14pm.
Commissioner Nnamdi Pole seconded the motion. The motion adjourn is passed unanimously.
