What skills and experience will you bring to this committee assignment? I grew up in a Northampton low-income household and understand the struggle and reality of facing homelessness in this area. I am a community organizer and over the years I have developed relationships with low-moderate income and public housing residents in Northampton through door to door outreach, community events, organized sports, and having worked in the Northampton Public Schools. In addition, I have served on the Valley Community Development board of directors, Cooley Dickinson Hospital Healthy Communities Committee, CDH Patient and Family Advisory Council, and Casa Latina, Inc. board of directors. Currently, I am the director of Hampshire Association of Tenants, Inc. (HAT) a new tenant organization in Northampton.
