

Proclamation

CITY OF NORTHAMPTON
COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

Hooray! Go Wild!
For the Week of the Young Child!
April 2-8, 2022

With apologies and gratitude to Dr. Seuss

WHEREAS,

One Child,
Two Child,
Red Child,
Blue Child.

WHEREAS,

This one is a little wild.
That one is a little mild.
But wild, mild, or in leaf piles,
We celebrate the Week of the Young Child

WHEREAS,

There are some that like to run,
Run for fun in the warm spring sun
And what in spring could be more fun
Than celebrating children that are young.

WHEREAS,

Early years are learning years,
Where we encourage hopes, not fears,
Praise parents, teachers, and caregivers with cheers
For supporting our future chefs and engineers

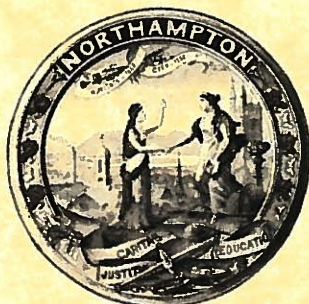

WHEREAS,

From there to here, from here to there
Brain Building is happening everywhere.

NOW, THEREFORE,

I, Mayor Gina-Louise Sciarra, do hereby proclaim:

Last week is gone.
Last week was fun.
This week is yet another one.
This week is one to go hog wild
And celebrate the Week of the Young Child.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have set my hand and have affixed the seal of the City of Northampton on this 8th day of April 2022.

Mayor Gina-Louise Sciarra
